The plan has proven practical as well as popular, and there has been talk of adopting it in other counties. In Van Wert, the Brumback Free Library has been dedicated and opened to all the citizens of the county. The building, a model structure for the purpose, is -the gift of the late J. S. Brumback. A tax is levied on the county for its support. The library has been opened only since January first and is now supplying books to all parts of the county. An interesting article-in the May Forum describes the progress of the work. The writer says: The method adopted by the Brumback Library to bring its books to all parts of Van Wert county is easily explained. The library itself--which represents a value of $50,000, receives, an annual income of fully $6,500 and has a stack-room capacity, when all...
