Wars trump shall then be heard no more; In every place meet friend and brother; Clasp hand in hand from shore to shore, When Peace and Mercy kiss each other. 138 THIS LIFE. The flashing sword shall then be sheathed, No more shall sound the cannons roaring, And all around love-words be breathed, And knees be bent, one God adoring. Let Peace and Mercy, sisters twain, Now loving meet and kiss each other, And vow they neer will part again, --Cling each to each as yearning mother Clings to her darling, little child; Join hand in hand,...
